BRIEF SUMMARY
With effect from 1 April 2013 all public sector bodies were required to adopt the Public Sector Internal Auditing Standards [the Standards]. One of the requirements of the Standards is for 'the board' to approve annually the Internal Audit Charter The internal audit charter is a formal document that defines internal audits purpose, authority and responsibility. The internal audit charter is a formal document that defines internal audits purpose, authority and responsibility. The internal audit charter establishes internal audits position within the organisation, including the nature of the chief internal auditor's functional reporting; relationship with the board; authorised access to records, personnel and physical properties relevant to the performance of engagements; and defines the scope of internal audit activities. In respect of public sector organisations the internal audit charter must also: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • define the terms 'board' and 'senior management' for the purposes of internal audit activity; • cover the arrangements for appropriate resourcing; • define the role of internal audit in any fraud-related work; and • include arrangements for avoiding conflicts of interest if internal audit undertakes non-audit activities. The Internal Audit Charter 2016-17 is attached at Appendix 1
