

ECaT

Listening and Attention Skills October 2017

Everywhere we go there are different noises around us – encourage your child to listen to and identify the sounds in the local environment.

ACTIVITY – Listening Walk

Take a walk around the garden or outside play area. Listen out for different naturally occurring sounds, e.g. airplane, birds, sirens, leaves rustling, dog barking. Talk about what you hear with your child, practice imitating the sounds.