

ECaT Top Tips for Talking

January 2021

Get the child's attention first

Get down to the child's level and engage their attention before speaking or asking a question.

Young children find it difficult to listen and carry on with an activity at the same time. Saying their name first encourages them to stop and listen.

For more ideas and activities visit the website of the month:

www.ICAN.org.uk